

GLIDDEN TOUR ROUTE FINALLY ANNOUNCED

It Will Cover Great National Highway From New York to Jacksonville, Touching Many Points of Historic Interest.

New York, August 13.—After long deliberation the routes and dates for the Glidden tour, which will cover the national highway from New York to Jacksonville, have been announced. The tour will start from this city on Saturday, October 14 and will end at Jacksonville on Wednesday, October 25. Two days will be spent in Atlanta, so that the 1,369 miles' run will consume ten days.

The Glidden trophy will this year be for competition by teams, not of one make, but representing certain cities or towns.

Each team shall consist of three cars, either of touring cars or runabouts, or of a combination of both, to be designated by the name of the city or town from which the contestants enter, and the trophy will be awarded to the team which has the least number of points penalty to its debit at the finish of the tour.

If more than one team is entered from the same city or town the first team entering shall be known as "Team No. 1." An entrance fee of $100 will be required of each team, and the option of electing the team on which his car shall compete, except that a resident of one State cannot be included in a team from another State.

In case any two teams have exactly the same number of points to their debit at the end of the tour, the cars of each team shall be examined by the technical committee as to the general condition of steering gear, brakes, running gear and front and rear axles, and penalties applied for defective condition thereof in accordance with a fixed penalty schedule.

The method of awarding the trophy will not affect the offer of cash prizes to the individual winners in the various prize divisions of touring cars and runabouts. For the seven divisions the total amount offered is $1,400. The longest day's run of the tour will be about 150 miles, from New York to Staunton, and the next longest about 175 miles.

That the good roads movement, already most active in the South, will receive a great stimulus as a result of the tour is a certainty, and many inquiries already received for full information as to details and conditions indicate a large and representative entry list of individual owners. The national tour in the past have extended as far as Maine, Quebec, Canada, and Minneapolis, Minn. West to Denver and Southwest to Dallas, Tex., and it is now fitting that the national tour should be run over the national highway to the South, connecting New York with Atlanta and Jacksonville, the gateway of Florida's famous winter resorts, which are the Mecca of so many Northern tourists who seek the land where it is always summer.

The route of the national highway embraces New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, and presents as varied conditions of scenery as any that can be chosen. In addition, it affords a veritable lesson in early American history. It passes the battlefields of Gettysburg and Antietam and also the Revolutionary battlefields of Guilford Courthouse and follows the Shenandoah Valley, which is replete with historic war-time sites and monuments.

Emerging from this beautiful valley the route passes directly across the famous Natural Bridge of Virginia. South of Roanoke there is plenty of mountain scenery. The famous tobacco region of Northern North Carolina is traversed, and fine macadam roads lead through this section south through the cornfields of South Carolina and into the cotton fields of Southern South Carolina. Cotton mills are to be found in most of the towns along the line, and a prosperity undreamed of a few years ago is everywhere evident.

WANT OLD CHURCH FOR BOXING BOUTS

Trustees of Congregation Forced to Change Minds About Selling Abandoned Building.

New York, August 13.—Reports that the old edifice of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, in Manhattan Avenue, near Java Street, Greenpoint, was to be leased to a sporting syndicate for the purpose of giving boxing exhibitions brought so many protests from the old members that the trustees who have the church property in charge were forced yesterday to change their minds.

The church is one of the oldest in the Greenpoint section, and was in a prosperous condition until a few years ago. Changes in the class of population caused the membership to dwindle, and after considerable agitation the church was consolidated with the Tabernacle Methodist Episcopal Church. The united congregation is using the last named edifice, in Manhattan Avenue, opposite Noble Street.

Since the First Church was abandoned the trustees have been trying either to lease or sell the property. When the new law permitting boxing exhibitions was passed by the Legislature and signed by Governor Dix certain ones in the church, it is said, suggested that the old building could be leased at a profit for boxing purposes. It has a gallery and a seating capacity of 1,000.

The project was submitted to a Manhattan sporting syndicate and an offer was made for the property. When this became generally known the majority of old church members raised objections, with the result that the offer has been declined by the trustees. The boxing offer would have been remunerative, but it was rejected and no other such offer will be considered.
